

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT—Continued.

IN CHURCHES TODAY

Subjects to be Discussed from the Various Pulpits.

REV. J. L. ROSSER TO RESIGN

Will This Morning Announce His Determination to Go to Richmond on July 1—Rev. E. T. Wellford to Speak.

Rev. J. L. Rosser will this morning tender his resignation as pastor to the congregation of the West End Memorial Baptist church and will on July 1 go to Richmond to become associate pastor of Grove Avenue Baptist church. Mr. Rosser will go to Richmond with the understanding that later on he will become the active pastor of the church. "Evergreens" will be his morning subject today and this evening "The Broken Snare."

"A Glimpse of Heaven" is the theme announced for the morning sermon by Rev. A. C. Hopkins in Central Methodist church and tonight "A Manly Christianity."

Rev. E. T. Wellford of Newport News will address a missionary meeting in the Hampton Presbyterian church tonight. Rev. A. C. Hopkins, the pastor, will fill his pulpit this morning.

At the Hampton Baptist church this morning, Rev. E. Pondleton Jones, D. D., will preach a special discourse to old people and tonight he will conduct the usual services.

Rev. A. J. Renforth will take as his morning subject in the Christian church today, "The True Model" and tonight, "Wee, Above That Which is Written."

Rev. G. F. Rogers will conduct services in St. John's Episcopal church today.

LADY GAY IS SOLD.

Prominent Men Buy the Trim Little Gasoline Yacht From F. M. Phoebus. Mr. George W. Phillips yesterday sold the trim little gasoline launch, Lady Gay, owned by Mr. Frank M. Phoebus of Atlantic City, to a party of gentlemen in Hampton. The purchasers are Messrs. Hunter R. Brooker, W. E. Cooke, Mayor Thornton F. Jones, Commonwealth's Attorney B. A. Lewis and S. S. Lawson.

The launch will be used as a pleasure boat by the gentlemen who have bought her.

HARRIS' CREEK DEFEATED.

Picked Nine From the Y. M. C. A. Had a Walk-Over.

The Harris' Creek baseball nine came to Hampton yesterday afternoon and were given a sound drubbing by a picked nine from the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Harris' Creek boys expected a walk-over and when at the end of the fifth inning the Hamptonians had piled up 13 runs it was too much for the visitors and the game was brought to an end. Harris' Creek never did get a man over the home rubber. Julius Davis of the Hamptonians distinguished himself by driving out one ball for a home run.

WILL BE BRIDE OF JAMES F. STARKEY

Philadelphia Lady to Marry Fort Monroe Artilleryman in Phoebus This Morning.

A marriage license was granted in the clerk's office yesterday to James Frederick Starkey and Miss Catherine Cecelia Dunleavy, the ceremony to take place in Phoebus this morning.

Mr. Starkey is a sergeant in the artillery branch of the United States army, being stationed at Fort Monroe.

Miss Dunleavy came from her home in Philadelphia several days ago to marry Sergeant Starkey. She is a native of England, but has resided in Philadelphia for some time.

A Thoughtful Act.

The fiction of the friend who is coming to occupy the seat in the railway train that one has really secured as an extra seat for oneself sometimes works and sometimes doesn't. A passenger, hurrying along the platform just before the train started, flung himself upon a seat that was already occupied with a Gladstone bag. "That seat is taken," said a morose old gentleman. "My friend has kept it with his bag." "All right," said the wily passenger affably. "I'll occupy it till he comes." Of course the friend never came, and just as the train was moving out of the station the wily passenger seized the bag and threw it out of the window. "What are doing, sir?" shouted the old gentleman furiously. "Anything the matter?" inquired the other. "You don't want your poor friend to lose his bag, do you?"—London Chronicle.

What Is an Ide?

"What is an ide?" It is a natural pitfall for modern generations. Even Baucis Lytton allowed one of his Roman characters to say, "It stands fixed for the ninth ide of August," although he must have known that "ides" is a plural without a singular. Why the Romans called the 15th of March, May, July, October and the 18th of every other month the ides they do not seem to have known for certain themselves. Some thought it meant the halfway day of the month, from an Etruscan word meaning "to divide," but modern philology, digging into Sanskrit, has suggested that it means the bright time of the month, full moon.—London Notes and Queries.

Accuracy of Marksmanship.

Ability to shoot straight is to some extent a natural gift and it is useless trying to make a captain of a gun of a man who does not possess this faculty. He may be a good enough man in other ways, but unless he has a "straight eye" he will never become much of a marksman. The admiral recognizes this and has ceased trying to make crack shots of men whose talents do not lie in that direction.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A Good Cook.

"Have you a good cook?" asked Mrs. Bond Hill. "Yes, she's good enough," replied Mrs. Chester Park. "She attends church three times a week and all that, but her cooking is something fierce."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Fortunate Father.

Mrs. Miranda—Yes, mamma, Mr. Fargol knows that my face is all the fortune I possess. Bertie (the terrible)—Yes, mamma, and when I sneaked into the room he was trying his level best to get at her fortune.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Lack of Respect.

The men who won't respect gray hairs. Oh, how we do despise 'em! Him most of all who won't respect His own gray hairs, but dyes 'em.—Philadelphia Press.

OPENING OF BUCKROE

Great Crowd Will go Down Tomorrow Evening.

BEACH LOOKS MIGHTY PRETTY

Those Who Ride on the Old Line Will Have Free Admission, While Others Are to Be Charged 15 Cents and Given Return Coupon Over the Old Line.

With a most elaborate pyrotechnic display, Buckroe the summer resort of this side of the Virginia peninsula, will open tomorrow evening. Great preparation has been made for the opening and Manager Charles W. Rex promises an unusually attractive evening to those who attend.

For the past several weeks the painters, carpenters and other workmen have been hard at work getting the buildings and grounds in condition for the opening of the season, and it can be stated with accuracy that Buckroe never looked prettier than at this time.

Old Car Line Arrangements.

The Newport News and Old Point Railway and Electric Company has made arrangements for handling the immense crowd expected tomorrow evening. Special cars will go direct from Newport News to the resort and every attention will be given for the comfort of those making the trip. To those who travel on the old car line the round trip and admission to the grounds will be 10 cents. Passengers on the cars will pay the conductors 5 cents fare and the conductors in turn will deliver to them a transfer, which transfer must be presented at the gate. The man at the gate will then sell you a coupon for five cents, which will entitle the holder to admission to the grounds and to a return back to Phoebus, Hampton or Newport News. Thus it will be seen by making the trip on the old car line no admission will be charged further than the regular fare of 10 cents for the round trip.

To those who attempt to enter the gates without having the transfer of the Newport News and Old Point Railway and Electric Company, an admission fee of 15 cents will be charged, but with the admission fee the person entering the gate will be given the coupon, which entitles them to return to any of the points along the old line from Buckroe to Newport News.

With the addition of the beautiful new cars the old line will have exceptional facilities for handling the large crowds and it is probable that the opening will attract an immense gathering to the resort.

Leslie's Monthly Magazine For June.

The remarkable advance made by modern medicine in handling contagious diseases and the possibility, first suggested by Pasteur, of making all infectious diseases to disappear from the world, is told by Dr. A. C. Seely in Leslie's Monthly Magazine for June. The writer shows what work has been done in bringing about artificial immunity through inoculation and indicates the lines along which physicians are working to curb the contagious diseases that now ravage the world's population. The other interesting special articles are: "The Jews of Wall Street," by S. A. Nelson; "The Bad Boy; How to Save Him," by Judgi Lindsey; and "Speaking of Insurance," by Willard Helburn. Miss Annie Payson Call in this number, begins a new series of papers on "Every Day Living," and the account of the Pinkerton Agency is concluded.

Henry Wallace Phillips' first novel "Plain Mary Smith: A Romance of Red Saunders," is begun in this number. The short stories are by Justus Miles Forman, Juliet Wilbur Tompkins, Holman F. Day, George Allan England, Caroline Lockhart, and Charles Battell Loomis.

Wolf, Camel and Bear.

The only two animals besides the wolf for which domesticated animals never seem able to conquer their aversion are the camel and the bear. The former is a case of pure natural aversion. It has been noticed that when the camels in a traveling menagerie have been tethered at any particular spot horses will shy and refuse to go near it, even after the camels have gone on their way with the rest of the show to another town.—Country Life.

Remorseless Progress.

In every great business, the chief trouble is to find a powerful and pioneering staff. It is frequently achieved in these days, and especially in America, by a series of remorseless experiments. One person after another gets his chance, and nine-tenths of the number are flung upon the street.—British Weekly.

Writers and Doctors.

It is a curious fact that great writers, speaking generally, have been no lovers of the medical profession. This is doubtless the reason why doctors for the most part cut so sorry a figure in literature. Scribes of all sorts take a special pleasure in girding at them.—British Medical Journal.

Proud.

"That Mrs. Giltedge is awfully proud."

"How so?"

"Why, her father tried to advise her, and she wouldn't have it because advice is cheap."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

To Hear the Governor. Country Treasurer David Johnson and Judge Edgar B. Montague left last evening for Richmond to attend the meeting at the Academy of Music and hear Governor Montague speak last night.

Sent to Grand Jury.

Berkeley Courtney and James Eppes, the colored youth arrested for stealing a cow, were sent to the grand jury yesterday by Magistrate Peter B. Stevenson and committed to jail to await the action of the jury.

No. 45,836 drew the box of cigars at HULL'S CUT RATE DRUG STORE last night.
